

Article V

Dues:

Wiest [2-3]:

500.0.1: Annual dues for the party shall be $30 per year.

500.0.2: In the alternative, a “Dues Waiver” may be granted, in lieu of Annual Dues, by the State Party Executive Committee, either in advance by majority vote, or after-the-fact by a vote of two-thirds (2/3). Reporting requirements shall be codified in Operating Rules. Acceptable Dues Waivers are:

- a. Pre-approved service-based support (or, “service exemption”), as a number of hours rounded up to the nearest quarter hour to cover the dollar amount for Annual Dues calculated at federal minimum wage per hour.
- b. In-kind donation, valued at no less than the Annual dues amount.

Moellman [3-2]:

500.0.1: “Annual Dues” shall be the inflation adjusted value of $5 in July 1971, indexed to July of the year prior to the current year using the Consumer Price Index (CPI) Calculator provided by the United States Federal Government Bureau of Labor Statistics, rounded up to the nearest $5. Members shall be given at least thirty (30) days’ notice when the amount is to be increased.

- a. If the amount calculated under this provision exceeds the amount permitted under Kentucky law to be contributed by a minor within a single calendar year, the amount required of a minor shall be the legal contribution limit.
- b. A change in the amount calculated for Annual Dues does not change the current status of existing Dues-Paying Members for the duration of their current membership.

500.0.2: A “Dues Waiver” may be granted, in lieu of Annual Dues, by the State Party Executive Committee, either in advance by majority vote, or after-the-fact by a vote of two-thirds (2/3). Reporting requirements shall be codified in Operating Rules. Acceptable Dues Waivers are:

- a. Pre-approved service-based support (or, “service exemption”), as a number of hours rounded up to the nearest quarter hour to cover the dollar amount for Annual Dues calculated at federal minimum wage.
- b. In-kind donation, valued at no less than $30 and indexed to inflation.

500.1.2: Patrick Henry level membership shall be five times the amount of annual dues.

500.1.3: Thomas Jefferson level membership shall be ten times the amount of annual dues.

500.1.4: Haym Solomon level membership shall be fifteen times the amount of annual dues.

500.1.5: Lifetime membership shall be seventy-five times the amount of annual dues. Lifetime membership shall not be revoked once granted, except as provided in the party's constitution.

Membership can, in Operating Rules, define classifications of non-voting members, with the functions those classes of members can fulfill.

500.1.6: Persons who join the party after January 1 of a given year, and otherwise meet the qualifications of Voting Member except for Libertarian Party Registration with the Secretary of State, by January 1, may, after the annual state party annual convention or the nomination of candidates for that year, whichever is later, exercise all of the rights and privileges of a Voting Member, except as follows or outlined in the party's constitution: (i) they may not invoke or call for an arbitration unless it involves the revocation of their own membership (unless otherwise restricted by the Constitution); (ii) they may not participate in a call for, or vote at, a special state convention; (iii) they may not be a member of the State Party Executive Committee.

500.2: Disbursement of Funds to Affiliate Parties by State Party

500.2.1: No disbursement shall be made to any Affiliate Party that is not in good standing at the time disbursements are made.

500.2.2: Donations, after deducting any transaction fees, shall be disbursed quarterly using the following formula:

a. If the donor lives in an area without an Affiliate Party, or lives outside the state, the donation will remain with the State Party.

b. If the donor lives in an area with an affiliated District Party, the District Party shall be allocated one-third (1/3) of the donation, rounded to the nearest penny.

c. If a donor who lives in an area with an affiliated County Party or Metro Party, the County Party or Metro Party shall be allocated one-half (1/2) of the donation, rounded to the nearest penny.

500.2.3: A donor may request a different formula, however, if that formula deprives any Party the amount they would otherwise receive from the minimum donation requirements of Annual Dues, then the donation shall not be considered Annual Dues for any Party.

500.2.1: Donations, after deducting any transaction fees, shall be disbursed quarterly using the following formula:

a. If the donor lives in an area without an Affiliate Party, or lives outside the state, the donation will remain with the State Party.

b. If the donor lives in an area with an affiliated District Party, the District Party shall be allocated one-quarter (1/4) of the donation, rounded to the nearest penny.

c. If a donor who lives in an area with an affiliated County Party or Metro Party, the County Party or Metro Party shall be allocated one-quarter (1/4) of the donation, rounded to the nearest penny.

500.2.3: A donor may request a different formula, however, if that formula deprives any Party the amount they would otherwise receive from the minimum donation requirements of Annual Dues, then the donation shall not be considered Annual Dues for any Party.

500.2.1: Donations, after deducting any transaction fees, shall be disbursed quarterly using the following formula:

a. If the donor lives in an area without an Affiliate Party, or lives outside the state, the donation will remain with the State Party.

b. If the donor lives in an area with an affiliated District Party, the District Party shall be allocated one-third (1/3) of the donation, rounded to the nearest penny.

c. If a donor who lives in an area with an affiliated County Party or Metro Party, the County Party or Metro Party shall be allocated one-third (1/3) of the donation, rounded to the nearest penny.

500.2.3: A donor may request a different formula, however, if that formula deprives any Party the amount they would otherwise receive from the minimum donation requirements of Annual Dues, then the donation shall not be considered Annual Dues for any Party.

Article VI

If a Party is dissolved, the assets of that Party shall be dispersed as provided in Operating Rules.

600.0.1: If a party is dissolved, its assets shall be transferred back to the state party; no party may transfer its assets in the six months preceding its dissolution with an eye towards avoiding this requirement.

The four officers of a Party are defined as the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer, whose duties shall be as set forth in Operating Rules adopted as provided in this Constitution.

600.1.1 Officers of a Committee. All committees shall have the following positions:

A) Chair, who is responsible for preparing an agenda for and presiding at all meetings of the committee, generally organizing the committee, being the primary spokesman for the committee, being the primary contact with the committee which created or chartered the committee being, at the option of the committee, either a non-voting or voting member of all other sub-committees of that committee.

B) Optionally (except for the State Party where it is mandatory), a Vice-Chair, who is responsible for assisting the chair, performing the duties of the Chair when the Chair is unable to perform those duties, and performing the duties of the Secretary when the Secretary is unable to perform those duties.

C) Secretary, who is responsible for maintaining all records of the committee (except financial transactions), recording the minutes of all committee meetings, and performing the duties of the Vice Chair if the Vice-Chair does not exist or is unable to perform those duties.

600.1.2 Officers of an Executive Committee have additional duties.

A) Executive Committee Chair, who is responsible for being the chief executive officer of the Party, and signing contracts approved by the Executive Committee on behalf of the Party.

B) Executive Committee Secretary for the State Party, who is responsible for making provisions for legal services to all Parties.

C) Executive Committee Treasurer, who is responsible for receiving, expending, and accounting for all Party Resources, and preparing and submitting campaign finance reports as, and if, mandated by Kentucky law.

D) The ranking of members of an Executive Committee is as follows: Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer, followed by At-Large Representatives ranked by order of election, followed by the Chair of each Affiliate Party ordered alphanumerically by Affiliate name.

600.1.3 At-Large Representatives of an Executive Committee.

A) They shall represent Voting Members who live in an area without an Affiliate Party, or otherwise represent minority viewpoints within a Party.

[2-3]

B) The number of Executive Committee At-Large Representatives shall change at any Convention of a Party, based on the number of Affiliate Parties chartered by that Party. All Parties shall have one (1) At-Large Representative position; a Party with six (6) Affiliate Parties shall have two (2); a Party with seven (7) Affiliate Parties shall have three (3); a Party with eight (8) or more Affiliate Parties shall have four (4).

[4-1]

B) The number of Executive Committee At-Large Representatives shall be set at a Convention by the delegates to that convention, and be between one and four members.

600.1.4 Precinct Captains of a County or Metro Party

A) Precinct Captains only exist in a County Party or a Metro Party.

B) The Precinct Captain shall be a resident of the precinct, whose title, when seated, shall be "Precinct Captain -" followed by the alphanumeric precinct designation.

C) Precinct Captains in a Party shall elect a Chair of the Precinct Captains of a Party from amongst themselves.

D) The majority vote of all sitting Precinct Captains on an Executive Committee shall be conveyed by the Chair of the Precinct Captains, and count as a single vote on that Executive Committee.

E) When vacant, the Executive Committee may fill the position, and that Precinct Captain shall be granted the rights and privileges of a regularly-elected Precinct Captain.

Duties excom

iv. Executive Committee shall perform such other functions and fill such other duties, as provided in the Operating Rules.

v. Operating rules may be enacted, as provided in this Constitution, to limit the number of Executive Committees any person may serve on or to provide other qualifications to hold particular offices 600.2.1: No person shall serve on more than one executive committee except as outlined in the constitution (i.e. the Chair of a affiliate committee may sit on the Chartering Party's executive committee).

Section 3. Leave of Absence

A. Provisions regarding leave of absences and who may act as an acting officer in the event of such leave may be provided in Operating Rules.

600.3.1: Any member of a committee may obtain a Leave Of Absence for up to forty-five (45) consecutive days, not to exceed ninety (90) days total in a single term of office; or that member is recalled from that committee. Any member on a Leave of Absence shall be treated, for purposes of quorum, as if that person is not on the committee, and not counted towards whether quorum is met or not.

600.3.2: A Leave Of Absence or resignation must be submitted to the highest-ranking remaining member of a committee in written form. If an "effective date" is not included, the effective date shall be assumed to be immediate.

600.3.3: Any individual member of a committee who misses two (2) consecutive noticed regular meetings without first obtaining a Leave of Absence may be recalled from that committee by majority vote of a quorum of the other committee members at the next noticed meeting following that second absence.

Section 4: Resignations, recalls, and vacancies

600.4.1: When there is a permanent vacancy due to resignation or recall from a position on a committee which may be filled by appointment as provided in this Section.

600.4.2: When there is a temporary or permanent vacancy on an Executive Committee:

a) If a vacancy occurs in the office of Vice-Chair or Secretary, the remaining members may appoint a Vice-Chair or Secretary to ensure there are three Officers of an Executive Committee. Any vacancy so filled shall be filled by the Voting Members at their next annual convention, or next special convention called for that purpose.

b) If the office of Treasurer becomes vacant, the Vice Chair (or Secretary if no Vice Chair) shall immediately become the Acting Treasurer. The remaining members of the executive committee shall then appoint a permanent Treasurer within thirty (30) days. Any vacancy so filled shall be filled by the Voting Members at their next annual convention, or next special convention called for that purpose.

c) If in the office of Chair becomes vacant, the Vice-Chair shall immediately become the Chair, and a vacancy shall occur in the office of Vice-Chair. Any vacancy so filled shall be filled by the Voting Members at their next annual convention, or next special convention called for that purpose.

d) Any default member of a committee of a Party can choose not to serve, or be recalled for absenteeism. Vacant positions shall be appointed by the Executive Committee of that Party.

Recalls:

600.4.3 A member of an Executive Committee can also be recalled from office under the following circumstances:

- i. Any Party officer, At-Large Representative, or Precinct Captain may be recalled from office by written petition (including by electronic mail) of forty (40) percent of all Voting Members of that Party, and by mailed, electronic, or other certified vote of no less than three-fifths (3/5ths) of all Voting Members of that Party. Notwithstanding any other provision, in the event that a recall petition fails, a subsequent recall petition may not be lodged within four months following the failure of the recall petition.
- ii. Any member of an Executive Committee who does not participate in the activities of the Executive Committee for a period of sixty-two (62) days or greater, without having first given proper notice of a leave of absence, shall be automatically recalled from office.
- iii. Any member of an Executive Committee may be recalled from office by a vote of no less than two-thirds (2/3) of the entire non-vacant voting members of the Executive Committee of that Party excluding the member in question who must vote affirmatively in favor of recall, and only for cause or neglect of duties. In the event of a recall under this section, the member in question shall be informed of the basis of the recall and notice of the meeting at which it will be heard at least seven days in advance, and shall be permitted to be heard in his or her defense by the entire non-vacant Executive Committee.
- iv. Any sitting member of an Executive Committee, who fails to meet the qualifications and requirements to be elected and serve in any capacity at any level in the party, as prescribed by the governing documents of that Party, will be given thirty (30) days, upon documented notification by any Party member, come into compliance with these requirements. Failure to meet these qualifications within the thirty (30) day period shall result in automatic recall from office.
- v. Any sitting member of an Executive Committee may also be recalled by a majority vote of the voting members at an annual convention; or by a 3/5 vote of a special convention.

Operating Rules

A. Operating Rules may be adopted setting forth requirements for the frequency under which meetings must be held, and setting penalties for failing to call and/or hold such meetings.

600.5.1: An executive committee shall meet at least every thirty-two (32) days, and business must be conducted with quorum present at least every ninety-two (92) days. Any part of the meeting not held in Executive Session shall be open, at a minimum, to the Voting Members.

600.5.2: The schedule for regular meetings, including date, time, and place of meetings, shall be established at the first meeting of the committee. This schedule may be altered by the committee; such alterations shall not avoid notice requirements.

600.5.2.1: In addition to the Chair, a majority of the non-vacant members of a committee may call a special meeting of the committee and prepare an agenda for that meeting, and one-third (1/3) of the members of a committee may add an item to the agenda of any special meeting at least three days prior to that meeting.

600.5.2.2: Meetings (including meetings of any subcommittee) may be conducted in-person, telephonically, by video conference, or any combination thereof.

600.5.2.3: Meetings of executive committees should start no later than ten (10) minutes after the scheduled time; but the start time may be extended up to sixty (60) minutes if waiting for quorum to be obtained.

600.5.2.4: Meetings shall follow an agenda, notwithstanding any amendment to that agenda by the voting body.

600.5.2.5: Minutes shall be kept for every executive committee meeting, unless a recording of the meeting is made available to the Voting Members. Minutes shall reflect the time the meeting began and the time it ended, the mechanism or location it was held, the attendees on the committee present and absent, and a record of all motions made and votes taken. Minutes shall be presented and approved within thirty-two days of a meeting. Upon approval, minutes shall be provided to the State Party Secretary within seven (7) days, and posted to the State Party website within fourteen (14) days.

Executive Committee only: [1-4]

All Committees: [4-1]

600.5.2.7: Meeting minutes shall not disparage particular members by name, except when the Membership [Director/Committee] submits request for removal of membership status from a Voting Member.

600.5.3: Executive Session shall be limited to:

600.5.3.1: Deliberations on the future acquisition or sale of real property by the party, when publicity would be likely to affect the value of a specific piece of property to be acquired for public use or sold by the party.

B) Discussions of proposed or pending litigation against or on behalf of the party, or to otherwise receive confidential legal advice.

C) Discussions or hearings which might lead to the appointment, discipline, or dismissal of an particular individual employee or contractor. This shall not be interpreted to permit discussion of general personnel matters in secret.

D) Discussion of electoral strategies in support of nominated candidates for external political office, or other matters related to confidential political strategy.

E) Meetings which federal or state law specifically require to be conducted privately.

F) Discussion of information technology infrastructure which would compromise the security of party operations.

G) Notice shall be given in regular open meeting of the general nature of the business to be discussed in Executive Session and the reason for the closed session.

H) Executive sessions may be held only after a motion is made and carried by a majority vote in open regular or special meeting.

I) No action may be taken at an Executive Session.

J) No matters may be discussed at an Executive Session other than those publicly announced prior to convening the closed session.

600.5.4: A committee may act between regular or special meetings by voting electronically, with all votes taken and recorded as roll-call votes, and details read into the minutes at the next regular meeting.

A) The State Party Executive Committee shall provide and manage an official mailing list for electronic discussion and voting to every committee of the Party, made viewable to Voting Members, using official LPKY.org email addresses assigned by the State Party.

1) No more than two (2) motions by electronic mail shall be considered by a committee at the same time. A committee member may introduce a motion by opening a distinct thread on the appropriate mailing list. The subject line must begin with "MOTION:" in capital letters, followed by subject in normal case.

2) Discussion may begin once another member has seconded the motion. A motion is considered failed if it is not seconded within two (2) business days.

3) The question will automatically be called, unless tabled to the next special or regular meeting, by a vote of one third (1/3) or more of the committee, after one (1) full business day with no discussion, or five (5) business days after the motion was seconded, whichever comes first. Once the question has been called, members shall have two (2) business days to vote.

4) No action shall be considered passed without a vote of the majority of all seated members of that committee.

5) If a committee votes via mailing list to enter Executive Session, the committee may meet privately via teleconference.

B) In the case of an emergency, where the regular notice requirements would extend beyond a deadline specified in this Constitution, State Law, or State Regulations:

1) The committee chair shall set a time, phone number, and any necessary access codes for a telephone conference, and notify members of the committee with as much notice as possible. Notification must be made by texting, or with a voice telephone call or voicemail for those unable to access texting.

2) The topic of the motion to be considered will be included in the text, telephone call, or voice message.

3) The actions considered and the results thereof shall be published to the mailing list assigned to the committee within twelve (12) hours.

B. Standing Committees for the State Party, except as set forth herein, shall be set forth in Operating Rules, which may also provide additional duties and responsibilities for such committees.

600.6.1: When an Executive Committee seeks to execute a task or related set of tasks they may appoint a Director, who shall serve at the leisure of the Executive Committee and directly reports to the Executive Committee chair. Directors may be members of an Executive Committee. Executive Committees need not appoint any particular Director.

600.6.2: General provisions for Directors

(a) Directors exist to execute duties, but a Director shall not have more authority than what is granted under the Constitution and what is authorized by the Executive Committee Chair.

(b) A Director may be appointed by the Executive Committee, and when appointed shall report to, and serve at the leisure of, the Executive Committee Chair. A Director may be removed by either the Chair or the Executive Committee.

(c) Only one Director may exist for each outlined Director position and set of duties.

(d) No Party may otherwise codify any Director to operate any election-related or other items codified in Bylaws.

(e) A Director may, at their discretion, appoint additional persons, who shall report directly to the Director, within the purview of their Director role. Any such appointments shall be promptly reported to the Executive Committee, which may disapprove same, and appointees shall have the same powers, limitations, and requirements of the Director.

(f) A Director may hold an elected or appointed position in a Party, but shall not vote on any item related to their Director role, subject to any potential restrictions under conflict of interest rules.

(g) A Director shall provide status reports at each meeting of the Executive Committee.

(h) The term of any Director shall end at Annual Convention.

C) Defined Directors for the State Party:

1) Membership Director

- a) They shall work with the Membership Director of the Chartering Party and of all Affiliate Parties, where applicable, to maintain the membership roles for the Party and all Affiliate Parties. Membership lists shall be disseminated to Affiliate Parties in accordance with Operating Rules.
- b) They shall assist in developing a “Non-Disclosure Agreement” to protect membership data, and maintain the list of those who have signed that agreement.

2) Outreach Director

- a) They shall conduct periodic membership drives.
- b) They shall be responsible for creating monthly newsletters to members and other contacts who have opted-in to receiving such communication. An Affiliate Party shall be responsible for providing newsletter content to the Director in a timely manner.

3) Fundraising Director, who is responsible for creating and executing fundraising plans, with Executive Committee approval.

4) Communications Director

- a) They shall be responsible for external communications with the public and media, with approval from the Executive Committee Chair.
- b) They shall maintain content for any social media assets, and content for the Party on the State Party website.

5) Information Technology Director, who is responsible for executing all IT-related tasks as assigned.

- a) They shall exist only for the State Party.
- b) They shall work to document, obtain, implement, maintain, monitor, and/or modify any and all Party Resources under the purview of Information Technology of all Parties, with oversight from the State Party Executive Committee.
- c) They shall respect privacy and autonomy, and not engage in the day-to-day operation of any Party Resource, unless specifically directed in Bylaws or Standing Rules, or by the Executive Committee of the Party that operates the asset or the State Party Executive Committee.

d) They may recommend “Acceptable Use Policy”, “End User License Agreement”, or other similar documents for consideration for adoption as a prerequisite to use IT assets.

6) Political Director, who is responsible for arranging external resources other than financial resources for candidates, and for arranging lobbying efforts for the party.

7) Events Director, who is responsible for arranging conventions and other non-fundraising events.

a) They shall be responsible for collecting and maintaining a list of political or other outreach events. The Executive Committee may task the director to organize Party presence at such events.

8) Field Development, who is responsible for finding and cultivating future leaders of the Party.

a) They shall be responsible for finding and assisting coordinators throughout that Party and its Affiliate Parties to build new Affiliate Parties.

D) Ad-Hoc Directors may be created by any party, provided the role the does not encompass any Director role or Standing Committee defined by this document or the Bylaws, or Ad-Hoc Committee.

600.6.3: State Party Membership Review Committee

600.6.3.1: It shall be comprised of five or seven members, as determined by the body in the State Party annual convention, to be elected to a one-year term, by the Voting Members at the State Party annual convention. Vacancies shall be filled between conventions by the remaining members of the committee. Its members may serve on other committees, including executive committees. The Committee shall elect a chair and secretary at its first meeting, which may be held during or within seven days following the state convention at which the committee members are elected, or by email or telephone.

600.6.3.2: It shall meet only as required when a Voting Member files a complaint to the committee regarding violations by a Voting Member of the Statement of Principles. Any complaint shall be in writing and signed by the Voting Member making the complaint. Hearings should generally be recorded, but the failure of recording equipment will not invalidate the hearing.

600.6.3.3: Any matter regarding revocation of voting membership status that requires adjudication shall be referred to the entire Membership Review Committee. At the option of the Chair, he may refer the Complaint to the remainder of the Committee, which can vote to dismiss the complaint because it: (a) is dilatory; (b) has already been decided by the committee; (c) is frivolous on its face; or (d) does not violate the Statement of Principles. Unless dismissed, the Chair of this Committee shall immediately provide a copy of the charge or grounds for challenge, to the Voting Member being challenged. The Voting Member shall be entitled to file a response and answer within ten days. Any member who is the subject of a complaint may request that hearings be open in their answer. The failure to file a timely response may be determined by the Committee to constitute a default, and, in that event, the complaint may be upheld by the Committee and sent to the Executive Committee for further action. Further, if a response is filed that admits the basis of the challenge, the Committee may likewise uphold the Complaint and send the matter to the Executive Committee for further action.

600.6.3.4: Absent a default or a upholding of the challenge as provided in 600.6.3.3, the Committee shall then hold one or more hearings, including by telephone, to receive evidence and testimony. Evidence need not be admissible in a court of law, and the ruling of the Committee Chair on questions of admissibility shall be binding, subject to being overturned by a majority vote of the committee. The Chair may permit filings by e-mail or electronically in order to expedite the resolution of the matter.

600.6.3.5: The Committee, or its members, may conduct its own investigation into any allegations in advance of a meeting or hearing.

600.6.3.6: All deliberations shall be in closed executive session, but all final votes of the committee shall be in open session.

600.6.3.7: Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the Committee shall vote whether to sustain the complaint and a violation of the Statement of Principles. If a complaint is sustained, the Committee shall also vote on a recommended remedy, which is not binding upon the Executive Committee, which may, but need not, include: (i) recommendation of censure of the Voting Member to the Executive Committee; or (ii) recommending to the Executive Committee the revocation of Membership. If the challenge is denied that ends the matter.

600.6.4: Platform and Issues Committee

600.6.4.1: The Chair of the Platform and Issues Committee shall be appointed by the Executive Committee from among the members of the Executive Committee of the Party no later than 60 days after the annual convention.

600.6.4.2: The members of the Platform and Issues Committee shall be appointed by the Executive Committee of the Party. Membership is open to any voting member of the Party.

600.6.4.3: This committee shall draft policy statements for the Executive Committee of the Party and develop position papers for the Party.

600.6.4.4: This Committee shall prepare planks for the Party Platform, hold hearings on these planks and submit them to the delegates of the State Party Annual Convention for approval.

600.6.5: State Party Rules Committee

600.6.5.1: The State Party Rules Committee shall be comprised of five, seven, or nine members, who shall be appointed by the State Party Executive Committee.

[DEPENDS ON WHAT HAPPENS WITH CONSTITUTION VOTE]

600.6.5.2: The committee may recommend changes to the Constitution, Operating Rules, or default convention rules. Such recommendations shall be submitted to the State Party Executive Committee or State Party Convention for approval, as specified in the Constitution.

[DEPENDS ON WHAT HAPPENS WITH CONSTITUTION VOTE]

600.6.5.2: The committee may recommend changes to the Constitution, Elections Bylaws, Operating Rules, or default convention rules. Such recommendations shall be submitted to the State Party Executive Committee or State Party Convention for approval, as specified in the Constitution. This shall not be construed to limit the ability of any other member to bring forth proposals.

600.6.5.2: The committee shall identify and bring forth any Party rules that conflict with state law.

600.6.6: Caucus Campaign Committees

600.6.6.1: Campaign Caucus Committees shall be the House Libertarian Caucus Campaign Committee and Senate Libertarian Caucus Campaign Committee.

600.6.6.2: Each committee shall function as "caucus campaign committee," as set forth in Kentucky Revised Statutes and Kentucky Administrative Regulations, to solicit, raise, and spend funds to assist in the election of Libertarian candidates.

600.6.6.3: Committee membership

a) Members of each committee shall be elected to a two-year staggered term, as follows:

i) Two (2) members, to a two-year term in 2019, elected by the delegates at each State Party Annual Convention.

ii) Three (3) members, to a one-year term in 2019, elected by the delegates at each State Party Annual Convention, and then to a two-year term in 2020.

iii) The members of both committees may be the same persons and may be members of the State Party Executive Committee.

iv) Vacancy in an unexpired term of a seat on the committee shall be filled by the State Party Executive Committee.

600.6.6.4: These committees shall not, in any way, expend any funds in connection with the nomination of Libertarian candidates for public office or internal party office, or internal governance matters. Nothing in this section shall prevent members of these committees from acting as voting members of the party.

600.6.6.5: Such committees are required to comply with this Constitution, and applicable Kentucky Revised Statutes and Kentucky Administrative Regulations. Failure to comply shall result in the removal of all members of the committee.

600.6.7: State Party Elections Committee or “Elections Committee”

600.6.7.1: One member of the State Party Elections Committee shall be elected by the convention body each year, to a two-year staggered term, provided that one member will be elected to a one-year term in 2019.

600.6.7.2: The State Party Executive Committee shall appoint two members to the State Party Elections Committee to a one-year term.

600.6.7.3: The State Party Executive Committee shall also appoint the Chair of the State Party Elections Committee to a one-year term.

Article VII Conventions

B. Operating Rules may be enacted that govern the calling of such conventions, the timing of such conventions, rules for such conventions, penalties for failing to call such conventions (provided that no such penalty shall work to inhibit the nomination of candidates or their placement on the ballot, such matters being left to the Elections Committee), default convention dates, and restrictions on calling conventions. Conventions must be held annually by the State Party and all Affiliate Parties.

Notice for Conventions

Requirements for notice shall be as provided in Operating Rules.

B. Calling a convention

i. Except where otherwise defined in this Constitution, any regular convention must be called with advance notice prior to the convention as set forth in Operating Rules.

700.1.1: Annual Convention

700.1.2: A Party must annually call a convention of all Voting Members of that Party, known as the Annual Convention.

700.1.2.1: Eligibility to participate as a voting delegate in an Annual Convention shall be limited to Voting Members, who:

1. Is a registered Libertarian on December 31st of the year preceding the convention; or

2. Becomes a resident of Kentucky and a Registered Member after December 31st of the year preceding the Annual Convention, but at least thirty (30) days prior to the Annual Convention.

700.1.2.2: A County Party or Metro Party shall conduct the business of their Annual Convention on the second or third weekend in January, and shall be ready to provide notice of the convention to the Executive Committee of the Chartering Party and State Party no later than the second weekend in November of the year prior.

700.1.2.3: A District Party shall conduct the business of their Annual Convention on the first or second weekend in February, and shall be ready to provide notice of the convention to the State Party Executive Committee no later than the first weekend in December of the year prior.

700.1.2.4: The business of the Annual Convention for the State Party shall occur on the last weekend in February or first weekend in March, and the State Party shall be ready to notice the convention no later than the last weekend in December of the year prior.
