#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	I feel it would be irresponsible of us as a party and a body if we where to continue with a in person convention. These things are outside the current scope of finical ability that many of us will be able to achieve	5/8/2020 9:30 PM
2	I am fully supportive of the compromise brokered by Joshua Smith. In the near-term, we should try and select our Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates to ensure we have enough time to secure ballot access. If there's an opportunity for an in-person convention, we should take it. We should be prepared enough with a backup contingency in place of a virtual convention, but we've already seen that it would probably be a disaster. Plus - an in-person convention allows us the opportunity of press and presents the opportunity for a prime-time acceptance speech, similar to the RNC/DNC conventions.	5/8/2020 7:49 PM
3	I will not willingly accept anything but an in-person convention, and I will either vote against it or decline to participate	5/8/2020 6:49 PM
4	I am sheltering near Austin, so in person attendance is relatively easier for me than for most, but I understand if it is necessary to go virtual or to delay gathering for a while. Free people need to be flexible and considerate.	5/8/2020 6:22 PM
5	Thank you for asking!	5/8/2020 6:17 PM
6	Figure out a way to change the bylaws so that remote voting for POTUS V-POTUS and LNC positions can happen.	5/8/2020 4:50 PM
7	While e-balloting for POTUS/VPOTUS nomination may be a sensible option considering the ballot access concerns, all other convention business should be conducted in person for it to be a fair and transparent process and not be mired in technical difficulties.	5/8/2020 4:40 PM
8	In person or (3rd party verified) e-ballots only. Remote or on-line does not allow for unbiased participation	5/8/2020 4:23 PM
9	None	5/8/2020 4:14 PM
10	None.	5/8/2020 4:11 PM
11	Please schedule an in person convention in mid-late June	5/8/2020 4:07 PM
12	We need to get the President and VP ticket done. Everything else will wait. I won't go to an in person convention and would send an alternate.	5/8/2020 3:43 PM
13	In person convention only. Whether we can or cannot attend. Alternates available	5/8/2020 3:09 PM
14	In person only please	5/8/2020 2:54 PM
15	No.	5/8/2020 2:21 PM
16	I would like to see this resolved as soon as possible. We are wasting valuable time in fighting and it will hurt down ticket races	5/8/2020 1:56 PM
17	An in person only convention risks alienating and thus not representing the national delegates as a whole. It is extremely detrimental to our Presidential and Vice Presidential ticket if we delay choosing them immediately	5/8/2020 1:18 PM
18	Having an in-person convention ensures the most honest and open process for all party business. It also guarantees capturing as much publicity as possible and gives the party the best momentum.	5/7/2020 7:32 PM
19	I wish an "Unsure" or "I don't know" option was available on a couple of these questions...	5/7/2020 6:32 PM
20	I completely understand the concerns of everyone. I will accept whatever ultimately happens, because I believe everyone is acting sincerely in their actions.	5/7/2020 8:30 AM
21	I don't see how anything but accepting E-ballots and whatever related form of online convention will be viable. I am happy I do not have to help sort this out. Good luck to you all.	5/7/2020 6:04 AM
22	Stop taking delegates for granted. Stop jerking us around. Keep to the scheduled date. Stop wasting time getting bids from new cities on later dates. We have lives and other commitments. It's like three lnc just assumed delegates will all go anywhere, anytime. Keep to the original date. So it electronically. By telegraph if that's the best you can manage.	5/6/2020 11:40 PM

23	As a healthcare worker, it puts my livelihood at risk to travel outside of my immediate area because I would be required to quarantine for 14 days and be tested before I would be allowed to go back to work. It is risky to have a large gathering when most states will be reaching their surge of infections and hospitalizations during the summer months.	5/6/2020 11:33 PM
25	I look forward to seeing our leadership committee proposing new forward thinking suggestions that will allow our party to move forward and maybe even help inspire the world to bring the electoral process into the 21st century.	5/6/2020 8:16 PM
26	Have an e ballot for P and VP nominees ASAP then have whatever type of convention that is agreeable later. Date location and time can be determined any time. Doesn't have to be before Nov	5/6/2020 6:51 PM
27	An in person only convention is extremely risky. If it is prohibited by state or local authorities we risk not having timely nominees on the ballot.	5/6/2020 6:46 PM
28	Prefer in-person convention in June or July	5/6/2020 6:21 PM
29	I sincerely hope that the LNC will agree to allow for electronic voting of some form on the presidential and vice presidential nominees, as well as LNC staff. I also implore that if this decision is made that the LNC uses a completely secure voting system such as eBallot to ensure the nominating process can't be hacked.	5/6/2020 6:07 PM
30	If there is no in-person convention I will withdraw as a participant of the Welcoming Committee. If the online is the 'official' convention I will again withdraw from the WC.	5/6/2020 5:58 PM
31	Thank you for your service! I encourage the exploration of other online platforms (and the Zoom Meeting as opposed to Zoom Webinar option) for remotely-participating delegates. Zoom may be the best option, but other platforms such as Citrix GoToMeeting may be more optimal.	5/6/2020 5:43 PM
32	Whatever happens, nominations of presidential candidates should be done before the end of the month electronically. That is the one time-sensitive duty, and it is foolish for the LNC to wait any longer.	5/6/2020 5:42 PM
33	We need to get cracking on the fine tuning, whatever we end up going direction wise. I understand this is difficult. It's why you're all elected: to make tough calls.	5/6/2020 4:59 PM
34	N/A	5/6/2020 4:38 PM
35	I would prefer an in-person convention with remote participation for those who cannot attend.	5/6/2020 4:26 PM
36	Let us not let the perfect be the enemy of the good. If getting our Presidential candidates nominated is all we can do this year, I would be fine with that.	5/6/2020 4:14 PM
37	A virtual convention is only possible if the Bylaws are amended in person first, and that includes any e-ballots. There is a proposal out to do exactly that; please consider it seriously.	5/6/2020 4:13 PM
38	The Bylaws need to be amended at the earliest possible opportunity to allow the Party to perform critical functions such as nominate candidates for election to public office during emergency situations that prevent an on-site convention!	5/6/2020 4:07 PM
39	Don't violate the bylaws. You serve the members not yourselves. The chair undermining the decisions of the LNC is not acceptable.	5/6/2020 3:55 PM
